

There is no reason to keep XM radio or any other communication system from exercising its first amendment rights to succumb to lobbying, and political extortion is not protecting us nor is it representing our wishes please disregard these attempts to stop progress thank you for listening